Mrs. O. A. Smith, who has been in a critical condition at the Bonne Terre hospital for some time, is reported improved and getting along nicely, with every indication pointing to complete recovery in a short time.

Fred Fuhrmeister, who has employment in a drug store at St. Charles, and Geo. Trauernicht of Miami, Okla., were among the boys who came home for examination this week, following the second call for drafted men.

P. C. Hough, the hustling manager of McKinney's at Fredericktown, was among the visitors in Farmington Friday to see the boys leave for Camp Funston. Mrs. Hough remained over for several days visit with relatives.

When you have Backache the liver or kidneys are sure to be out of gear. Try Sanol, it does wonders for the liver, kidneys and bladder. A trial 35c bottle of Sanol will convince you. Get it at the drug store.

Albert Wulfert and W. R. Lang made a trip to Miami last week to inspect the handsome new mill of the Farmington Mining Company at that place. The new mill is one of the biggest and best in the district, and the company is reported as "just a-flyin'".

When Bill McAllister, porter at Beard's barber shop, fell from the step ladder Monday, his head hit one of the lavatories with some force, breaking it entirely off the stem—the lavatory, not the head. Both Bill and the lavatory were patched up without much difficulty.

A splendid rainfall visited this section of the country Wednesday night, and has put the ground in splendid condition for plowing. The unfortunate thing about it is that it also brought a considerable fall in the temperature, which is premature for the late corn crop, and may result in considerable damage.

Sanol Eczema Prescription is a famous old remedy for all forms of Eczema and skin diseases. Sanol is a guaranteed remedy. Get a 35c trial bottle at the drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Marbury and Mrs. J. C. Watson and Master James Watson went to St. Louis Saturday, where they were joined by J. C. He reports a good practice at Farmington.—Fredericktown Democrat News.

Geo. B. Presgrove, a member of the force of the Democrat-News at Fredericktown, was in Farmington Saturday, visiting with relatives and friends, and he didn't forget The Times among his friends. Mr. Presgrove has been identified with Southeast Missouri journalism for a good many years, and we are only too sorry that the editor was out when George called, so we couldn't extend him the glad hand of fellowship as we would like to have done.

You had better hand in your orders at once for fertilizer if you want to use any this fall, as it is hard to get. We have some Morris & Co. and Empire Brands on hand as present, but will not promise to supply any after our present stock is exhausted. Buy now and be sure.—Tetley-Klein Lumber Co.

As the afternoon train on the M. & B. T. railroad out of St. Louis, rolled into Desloge Tuesday, a foreigner started to get off with a heavy suit case. At the same time a couple of soldiers quickly boarded the car and seized the suit case, which they carried to the depot platform and opened, to find it well packed with bottled goods, which the soldiers at once proceeded to break. The beverage had the appearance of being "white mule". Anyway, a severe "kick" to the imported bootlegger.

The host of friends in the county of J. J. Roberts, cashier of the St. Francois County Bank of this city, will be sorry to learn that he has resigned that position, to take effect Nov. 1st, next, at which time he and his excellent family will move to Miami, Okla., where Mr. Roberts has been offered a similar position in a new bank that will be established there, in which there will be several Farmington stockholders. Mr. Roberts also has extensive mining interests there, which is another reason for his going.

For almost three years he has held his present position, during which time the credit of the St. Francois County Bank has been very materially improved and its deposits have increased about $100,000. This excellent family will be sadly missed from the city, but all will wish for them unbounded success in their new home. Mr. Roberts will be succeeded as cashier of the St. Francois County Bank by C. B. Snyder, who for the past ten years has been cashier of a bank in Marble Hill, Mo. He is a high class man, comparatively young, and is recognized as a splendidly equipped banker. He will be heartily welcomed at Farmington.

Philip Pipkin, of St. Francois, who for the past several years has held a responsible position as surveyor for the National Lead Co., has received a commission as First Lieutenant in the Engineering Corps of the Army. He is now considering whether or not he will accept the appointment.

Capt. W. A. Kennedy was among those attending the DeSoto Fair this week, returning home Thursday. The fair was considerably interfered with by rain, the Captain says, which kept the crowds away and dampened the spirits of those who did go. Too bad. A fair is a good thing and deserves success.

B. S. Gregory, of Ironton, Deputy State Fish and Game Warden, was here Tuesday acquainting himself with local conditions. He made The Times office a pleasant call and stated that the present administration proposed to enforce most rigidly the provisions of the fish and game laws of the State.

Joseph Weber, an old time citizen of Farmington, who for many years past has resided in St. Louis, came in Monday evening for a brief visit with his many old friends here. He is an uncle of Judge Kossuth and Dr. F. S. Weber. Mr. Weber is employed in the Carlton Dry Goods Co., in which concern he holds extensive interests.

Latest Embroidery Designs at the Enterprise.

The Times feels called upon to warn its readers throughout the State not to overlook getting a hunting license before starting on the first hunt. A dollar so invested will probably save you many dollars should you violate the game law. The State Fish and Game Commissioners propose to enforce the laws to the letter, without discrimination or favor to anyone.

STRAYED—Since August 23rd, one light red cow with tag in left ear bearing name, M. H. Keel, Brule, Mo., also branded on left hip, heart-shape. Had rope on her neck when last seen. $10.00 reward for her recovery. Rev. Alex Pelensky, Desloge, Mo. Phone 356. 38-3t

A window display at Klein's has attracted considerable attention this week. Balanced upon a needle, a large cork, with two ordinary table forks stuck into it, rotates slowly upon another cork in the top of a half-gallon bottle of vinegar. No source of power is visible to account for the motion, which continues indefinitely. It had 'em all guessing and has yet, no doubt, but our guess is that it gets an occasional sly push from "Buck" Davis. Otherwise, what makes the darn thing go?

Mrs. J. M. Perkins, who lives 7 miles out on Route 5, was in Farmington Tuesday and was an appreciated caller at this office to renew her subscription. This splendid old lady, who is still vigorous, does all her own house work, besides attending to a small garden, though she will be 84 years old at her next birthday, though she does not appear to be past 75. She said The Times management a splendid compliment when she said that all the reading matter she cared for now was the Bible and The Farmington Times.

STRAY JERSEY HEIFFER, in city stock pound, no mark on animal, black, short horns, will be fresh soon. Owner call and get her and pay expenses. SOLON HUGH, City Marshal.

The public sale of Mrs. Mary Deas and Robin Deas, which was conducted last Saturday at the home place, one and one-half miles west of this city, drew a large crowd, and bidding was active, so that the sale was a success in every respect. Considerable live stock and farm machinery was disposed of, the sale amounting to $1790. Holstein and Jersey cows sold exceptionally well, while the mules that were sold brought good prices. Mrs. Deas and her son will move shortly to Miami, Okla., for at least a brief residence, but will keep their home here when the desire comes to return to this place, to which all finally return. Many friends hope that their absence will not be extended.

MOTORCYCLE FOR SALE.—1917 model, 16-horse power, Harley-Davidson, with side car attachment. Will sell with or without the side car. Has been used only about seven months and is in first class condition. Will demonstrate. Reason for selling, am drafted.—S. F. Hritz, Festus, Mo., agent for Jefferson county.

Dr. John B. Robinson was the lucky winner of a handsome check offered in a prize competition by the Etude, a musical magazine, for the best suggestion suitable for a cover design for the magazine. The suggestion submitted by Dr. Robinson was an interior view of a church, looking from the rear and showing the pipe organ at the front of the auditorium. The Etude is one of the largest magazines in America covering the field of music, and had several thousand suggestions submitted in this contest.

WANTED—A fine Saddle Horse. My son has placed an order with me to purchase a gilt-edge saddle for park riding in New York. Must be stylish and sensible, 16 hands high, five gait, color black, dark bay or dapple iron grey, over five years and under seven years of age. Will pay a handsome price if suited.

W. A. KENNEDY, Farmington, Mo.

The Unity Home-Makers' Club met Thursday last week at the home of Mrs. T. B. Chandler. After the regular business was transacted, the afternoon was spent in sewing, under the competent direction of Mrs. Busick. Mrs. Geo. Burgess and Miss McElligott offered their names to the Red Cross Unit. The meetings of this club for the next three months will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Buck, meeting every other Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Fagete of Farmington, and Mrs. Geo. Burgess of Route 3, have loaned sewing machines for this work. A full attendance is earnestly desired for the next meeting, which will be next Thursday, Oct. 4th. Come and do your "bit."

WARE—FITZPATRICK

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, September 26th, 1917, at the home of Mr. George P. Ware, in Farmington, the contracting parties being Miss Edna Ware and L. W. Fitzpatrick of St. Louis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Boyd of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a few intimate friends and members of the families of the bride and groom. The happy couple departed the same day for St. Louis, where the groom had prepared a home for the bride, where they will reside. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Ware and has won for herself a wide circle of friends in Farmington, where she has lived since childhood. The groom is one of the firm of a large manufacturing and bridge building establishment in St. Louis which have built most of the steel bridges in St. Francois county, and has made many friends in Farmington on his frequent visits here. The Times joins heartily in wishing for the young couple all happiness, prosperity and realization of their hopes and dreams.

THOMPSON—VANDIVER

Hollis Thompson and Miss Leona Vandiver, both of Bonne Terre, motored over to Farmington Wednesday, Sept. 26, and were quietly united in the holy bonds of wedlock by Justice Wm. Good. The happy young people will make their home at Bonne Terre, and their many friends wish for them a long and happy wedded life.

WATSON—CLONINGER

Wednesday, September 16, 1917, Clark Watson of St. Francois and Mary Cloninger of Cold Water, Mo., were united in the bonds of wedlock by Justice Good. Mr. and Mrs. Watson drove over to Fredericktown for a short visit with relatives and friends, returning later to St. Francois, where they will live.

GRUNER—SNYDER

Dr. Harry Lee Gruner and Laura Myrtle Snyder were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. E. Snyder at Knob Lick, at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, Sept. 27. Only a few relatives of the contracting parties were present. The happy couple left on the 8 o'clock car for a stay of several days on a fishing and camping trip on the Current river.

Mr. and Mrs. Gruner will make their home at East Prairie, where Dr. Gruner is located.

LICENSED TO MARRY

Sept. 30, Marion G. Wilfong and Bertha Cash of Bonne Terre.

Sept. 20, Mike Troha of Madison, Ill., and Anna Kohut of Bonne Terre.

Sept. 21, Martin Latimer of Elvins and Virginia Kell Clay of Frankelay.

Sept. 22, John Calvert and Pearl Easer of Desloge.

Sept. 22, Wm. Weiss of Doe Run and Golda G. West of Bismarck.

Sept. 24, Clarence G. Kennedy and Edie Hastings of Flat River.

Sept. 24, Quincy Morris and Reba Jennings of Bonne Terre.

Sept. 24, Winifred R. Jolly and Sadie D. A. Martin of Flat River.

Sept. 26, Lawrence W. Fitzpatrick of St. Louis and Edna W. Ware of Farmington.

Sept. 26, H. L. Gruner of East Prairie, Mississippi county, and Myrtle L. Snider of Chicago.

Sept. 26, Hollis O. Thompson and Leona Vandiver of Bonne Terre.

Sept. 26, Clark Watson of St. Francois and Mary Cloninger of Cold Water, Wayne county.

Bids Asked

Sealed bids will be received by Albert Wulfert, County Clerk of St. Francois county, Missouri, until two o'clock p. m. on Monday, Oct. 15, 1917, for placing a crushed rock dressing on approximately one and one-eighth miles of the Farmington and St. Louis road; and also, upon one and six-tenths miles of the French Village and Valle's Mines road. Bidders will get bidding blanks and instructions from the Highway Engineer. Specifications on file with the County Clerk. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

THOS. H. HOLMAN, 38-St. County Highway Engineer.

SCHOOL DAYS AND SCHOOL LUNCHES

School days! What shall Billy and Jane have for their lunch? Let's see, what was left from breakfast—meat, fried potatoes, fried eggs, coffee, bread and butter. There is cake, pie, fritters, doughnuts, sausage, fried ham or pickles in the larder, and—

Wait, such foods should not be packed in the school lunch!

Wholesome foods suggested by Miss Bell in Agricultural Extension Service Circular 10 of the University of Missouri College of Agriculture are: milk or cocoa; good wholesome sandwiches—two kinds rather than two of one kind; fresh, canned and dried fruits; rice puddings, baked custards, junkets, gelatins, eggs in custards, or hard-boiled and chopped fine for sandwich filling; bread and cookies with nuts and fruits; well-cooked cereals; green vegetables; small amounts of home-made candy.

Unwholesome lunches are: (1) biscuits and sausage, mince pie. (2) Large pieces of bread, no butter; one slice of beef steak, cake. (3) Two pieces of corn bread with fried ham, two onions, one fourth mince pie. (4) Two large soggy soda biscuits, two fried eggs, one-half custard pie. (5) Three fried ham sandwiches, two ples cake.

Further suggestions concerning the cold school lunch, what it should contain and how it should be packed will be found in Circular 10. Copies of the circular may be had free by addressing the College of Agriculture, Columbia, Mo.

School Days and School Lunches

Your problems of providing proper food for the youngsters who go to school are vastly simplified and made easy for you if you let this splendidly-stocked store help. All of the things Miss Bell of the State University recommends here (or materials for them) are readily obtainable at Klein's most all the time. Why, then, let YOUR child endure the handicap of improper food during school days? Suppose the youngster doesn't take his lunch to school but eats at home. Isn't it worth while to see that PROPER food is provided there? Being the store of real service, this great busy establishment can help you in this respect—as in many others. Remember our two phones—both Eight-Oh—and our fast motor delivery service.
